MICHIGAN DEPT. OF COMMERCE
Corporation & Securities Bureau

These Articles of Incorporation are signed by the Incorporators for the purpose of forming a profit corporation pursuant to the provisions of Act 284, Public Acts of 1972, as follows:

ARTICLE I

The name of the Corporation is CMC TELECOM, INC.

ARTICLE II

The purpose or purposes for which the Corporation is organized is to engage in any activity within the purposes for which corporations may be organized under the Business Corporation Act of Michigan.

ARTICLE III

The total authorized capital stock is 50,000 shares no par value common stock.

The powers, preferences, rights, qualifications, limitations, or restrictions imposed upon the stock here authorized are as follows:

The Corporation may refuse to transfer upon its books or issue a new certificate of stock for any transfer of stock occurring within a period of Twenty-Four (24) calendar months from the date of such issue of the certificate being transferred, and involving any issue of such stock for which a registration statement has not been filed with the appropriate state or federal governmental agency.

ARTICLE IV

The location and post office address of the first registered office is Suite 132, 32985 Hamilton Court, Farmington Hills, Michigan 48018.

ARTICLE V

The name of the first registered agent is CRAIG CHAMPAGNE.

ARTICLE VI

The name and address of the Incorporator is CRAIG CHAMPAGNE, 24322 Pine Grove Court, Farmington Hills, Michigan 48018.

ARTICLE VII

Any meeting of the stockholders and any meeting of the directors of the Corporation may be held either within or without the State of Michigan, and the books and records of the Corporation may be kept at such place or places outside the State of Michigan as may be designated, at any time, or from time to time, by the Board of Directors, unless otherwise provided by the laws of the State of Michigan; and, meetings held within the State of Michigan need not be held at the registered office of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

Any action required or permitted by law to be taken at an annual or special meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

ARTICLE IX

Elections of directors need not be by ballot.

ARTICLE X

No contract of the corporation made with any director of this Corporation or with a partnership or other group or association of which any such director shall be a member or with any other corporation of which such director may be a member or director and no contract between this Corporation and any other corporation having common directors shall be invalid because of such facts alone.

ARTICLE XI

A director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of his or her fiduciary duty as a director except for liability:

(i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders,

(ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law,

(iii) for a violation of Section 551(1) of the Michigan Business Corporation Act, or

(iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Any repeal, amendment or other modification of this Article shall not adversely affect any right or protection of any director of the corporation existing at the time of such repeal, amendment or other modification for or with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal, amendment or other modification.

ARTICLE XII

The corporation shall indemnify any person who is or was a director or officer of the corporation, or a director or officer of the corporation who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding to the full extent provided by the Michigan Business Corporation Act from time to time in effect. This provision applies to actions, suits or proceedings initiated by any such person only if such action, suit or proceeding was authorized or ratified by the Board of Directors of the corporation unless the action, suit or proceeding was initiated by such person to enforce his or her rights to indemnification or advancement of expenses under this Article or otherwise. "Proceeding" as used in this Article shall include any proceeding within an action or suit.

ARTICLE XIII

Without limiting in any way Article XII of these Articles of Incorporation, above:

(i) Expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred in defending any civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Article XII, above, (other than an action, suit or proceeding initiated by a person with respect to which indemnification is not mandated by Article XII) shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the person seeking such advancement to repay the expenses if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. Such undertaking shall be by unlimited general obligation of the person on whose behalf advances are made, but need not be secured.

(ii) The corporation may, by action of or approval by its Board of Directors, provide indemnification and/or advancement of expenses to employees or agents of the corporation who are not directors or officers in the same manner and to the same extent as such rights are provided to directors and officers pursuant to Articles XI, XII and this Article.

(iii) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to Article XI, XII and this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws of the corporation, contractual agreement, or otherwise by law and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.
